New York State Office of General Services Commissioner RoAnn M. Destito today announced that the annual Italia Fest celebration will be held Wednesday, October 8 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the Empire State Plaza outside under The Egg. This free event will feature traditional Italian food, music and New York State wine alongside a farmers market. Also, craft vendors will be located inside on the concourse level of the plaza.

This year's Italia Fest menu will include Gnocchi with pancetta, local butternut squash, and Caesar salad. Red and white wine from Brotherhood Winery will also be available for adults with proper identification, and Ed "The Human Jukebox" Clifford will bring Frank Sinatra to life at this year's Italia Fest.

In case of inclement weather, Italia Fest will be held in the plaza's south concourse.

Paid parking will be available in the visitors or V-lot underneath the Empire State Plaza.
