New York State Office of General Services (OGS) Commissioner John C. Egan today announced the 2010 At The Plaza summer schedule of free concerts and festivals that will be presented at the Empire State Plaza in Albany.

"Despite the fiscal challenges currently faced by the state, OGS is thrilled that we are able to bring these popular family-friendly events back this year including the amazing Price Chopper Fabulous Fourth and Fireworks Festival," Commissioner Egan said. "Through the generous support of community sponsors, we are able to continue these free events which have become an important part of summer in the Capital Region, with no direct cost to the state."

"Price Chopper is proud to host its 35th annual Fabulous Fourth and Festivities at the Empire State Plaza in celebration of our country's freedom and independence," said Mona Golub, Price Chopper's VP Public Relations and Consumer & Marketing Services. "Our theme for July 4th, 2010 is 'C'mon Get Happy' which promises to delight audiences of all ages with activities for kids, breathtakingly visual athletic stunts, a wide variety of food vendors including Price Chopper's House of BBQ, regional and national musical entertainment on the main stage, headlined by Herman's Hermits starring Peter Noone, and a salute to our troops, crowned by the longest and best fireworks show of the year."
