Repairs Completed on Disabled Elevator Entrance at Empire State Plaza Madison Avenue Concourse

New York State Office of General Services (OGS) Commissioner, John C. Egan, today announced that The Office of General Services has completed rehabilitation of the main platform disabled access elevator on the South Concourse of the Empire State Plaza.

"I would like to thank everyone for their patience while we performed this necessary maintenance. The OGS team and Schindler Elevator are to be commended for their intense focus that allowed this job to be completed on a compressed timeline," Commissioner Egan said. "In addition, several additional access points that were established for use during the renovation will also become permanent."

A map of access points for the disabled can be found on the OGS website at www.ogs.state.ny.us. The following entry locations will be available to provide access to persons with disabilities:

- Madison Avenue - Elevator entrance located at street level will provide facility access daily from 6:00 am to 11:00 pm.
- Plaza Level - The Performing Arts Center (Egg): Entrance located at the northeast end will provide facility access daily from 6:00 am to 11:00 pm.
- Plaza Level - Agency Building One: Entrance located at the southwest end will provide facility access Monday – Friday, excluding holidays, from 6:00 am – 6:00 pm.
- State Street - Entrance located at street level. There is an outdoor walkway at the northeast corner of the Abrams Building, which leads to a doorway on the Concourse that will provide facility access daily from 6:00 am to 11:00 pm.

The New York State Office of General Services provides a broad range of support services that facilitate the operations of state government and assists local governments, public authorities, and public and non-profit agencies. OGS offers numerous services to clients throughout the Empire State, including property management, design and construction, procurement, and various support services.
